WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Thank you for joining us for Mass this morning. If you are visiting with us at St. Clement regularly, we invite you to complete a yellow registration card (available in the back). May God bless you in your spiritual journey.

HAPPY MOTHER’S DAY

We bless all our mothers this morning as we thank God for their love and nurture.

“POPE FRANCIS AND CLIMATE CHANGE”

This Wednesday at 6:20pm is the second of a two-session study of Pope Francis and his first encyclical on climate change. Therese’ Cush will be our leader, and all adults are invited for this enriching time together.

SECOND COLLECTION NEXT SUNDAY – Trinity Dome of National Shrine

Our second collection next Sunday will help erect the beautiful mosaic central dome of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington DC. Please remember that our second collections are in addition to our regular parish support.

DEACON FORMATION

With overwhelming acceptance of our Deacons and with the need for more, Bishop Duca plans for another Deacon Formation Program to begin January 2018. If you feel God calling you, first pray, then talk it over with your family, then visit the Diocese of Shreveport web site under Ministry/Permanent Diaconate, then come to an information day May 20 at Sacred Heart Church in Shreveport, 9:00am – 12:00 noon.

ANNUAL DIOCESAN STEWARDSHIP APPEAL

We are still receiving pledges for our Annual Diocesan Stewardship Appeal. Brochures explaining the many important ministries served through the Appeal are in the pews. Our goal at St. Clement is $11,500 this year. As of May 9, 36% of our parishioners have pledged or given to the Appeal $9,010 and this is 78.35% of our goal.

PRAY FOR OUR RCIA CANDIDATE

We pray for Tony Vargas who is preparing to receive the Sacraments of Initiation. May God continue to strengthen you in His care.

CONGRATULATE OUR GRADUATING SENIORS

Next Sunday during Mass we will recognize and congratulate our high school graduating seniors – Emily Taylor, Nathan Batongbakal and Tony Vargas. A reception in their honor will follow Mass in Parish Hall.

Those celebrating birthdays this week are: May 19, Belle French
